An International Conference on Integrated Medicine: Science and Practices (A Re-construction of Ancient Wisdom)

Dear delegates this international conference offers a dynamic platform to explore the integrative potential of the Nidana-Samprapti-Chikitsa triad in advancing holistic healthcare. With a focus on cross-disciplinary dialogue, the conference brings together experts in Ayurveda, Yoga, Naturopathy, Unani, Siddha, Homeopathy, Japanese & Korean Traditional Medicine and Modern Medicine. Key themes include evidence-based practices, digital health, AI in personalized medicine, and sustainable health models. This event aims to bridge tradition and innovation, encouraging collaborative solutions for global well-being. Join us in shaping the future of integrated medicine through knowledge sharing, research insights, and interdisciplinary partnerships.
